

Are you homeschooling?
Need support?
Worried about high school years?

We can help you!

First Class Co-op is a group of over 100 families in the Skagit Valley who have gathered to support one another!

Our mission statement:

We exist to encourage, support, and build up a community of Christian homeschool families.

We serve families with students from birth through high school. We offer a co-op Friday School, Display Night, Graduation, and a new high school support program!

We hope you'll join us at First Class, make some new friends and get involved!
